

In the spring of 1968, Coach John Clark received a call from Coach Tom Landry's office about getting FCA started in Plano. He has been actively involved in FCA ever since. 12 athletes and 2 coaches came to the 1st Plano FCA Huddle meeting to hear Coach Landry speak. That same year, the 1st Plano FCA Kick-off Breakfast took place.

Today, 49 years later, FCA in Plano continues to grow and impact hundreds of student athletes and coaches for Christ with 20 certified and active FCA Huddles in the Plano ISD Middle Schools, High Schools and Senior High Schools.

Come on out and join us for the 14th Annual Plano FCA John Clark Leadership Run on Saturday, May 19th. Runners, Walkers, Families, Volunteers, Sponsors and Spectators are all invited to this exciting event. Proceeds from 1 Mile Fun Run and 5K entries and our awesome sponsors support the Plano ISD Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Throughout the year, the Plano FCA Adult Chapter is able to host inspirational events such as the FCA Kick-Off Breakfast for athletes and coaches, Fields of Faith and the FCA Coaches Dinner for coaches and their spouses. In addition to these events, we are able to provide great resources to the FCA Huddle programs in the schools and provide FCA Leadership Camp Scholarships (Camp cost $225- $295pp) to send students to FCA Leadership Camp. These student leaders and coaches make a positive difference on their campuses through providing FCA Huddle programs that teach character and leadership and encouraging everyone to be the people that God has designed them to be.

Thank you for your participation and support of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Plano
